Another husband and wife team will be installed as leaders of Post 307 and its Auxiliary during public installation ceremonies at 8 p.m. Saturday, July 23, at the Legion home, 740 Broadway, Venice.

Robert Douglass of Venice, an employee of a St. Louis trucking firm, will become commander of Post 307. His wife, Ellen, will be installed as president of Unit 307.

This will be the second year in a row that a couple has held the top offices simultaneously. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austria are the 1965-66 commander and president.

Luncheon, Dance
 Following the joint installation, a lunch will be served and dancing will be held.

New Auxiliary officers besides Mrs. Douglass will be Mrs. Estelle Bone, first vice-president; Mrs. Beulah Sizemore, second vice-president; Miss Dorothy Hinson, secretary; Mrs. Joyce Austria, treasurer; Mrs. Virginia Peach, chaplain; Mrs. Faye Smith, historian; and Mrs. Pauline Mersinger, sergeant-at-arms.

Alton Jaycees, Boy, 19, Fined for Gambling

Two members of the Alton-Godfrey Junior Chamber of Commerce and a 19-year-old Godfrey boy paid fines of $10 each and court costs in Edwardsville Monday on gambling charges that followed their arrest Friday night at the Jaycee state board meeting in Godfrey.

Those fined were Roger Sparks and Charles D. Horsman, both of Alton, and Gerald R. Sale, 19, of Godfrey. Sgt. Cooper of the sheriff's office identified Sparks as the operator and Horsman as the payoff man in operation of a dice wheel.

Sheriff's deputies, in making the arrest, confiscated the wheel and 80¢. Sparks was charged with operating and promoting a wheel of chance, Horsman for keeping a gambling device, and Sale for playing a game of chance.

The three pleaded guilty before Magistrate Joseph Kelleher.

Auto is Best Refuge From Lightning

The best refuge from lightning during a thunderstorm is the shelter of an automobile, the Quad-City Safety Council advises.

When lightning hits an automobile, it disperses all over the metal, travels through the springs, axles and bearings to the wheels and then jumps back the rubber tires to the ground.

Only a person in direct contact with the metal can get burned, and such burns would be slight.

The Safety Council notes that is actually hard to find instances of lightning even hitting cars.

Jerry Tratlert Elected Chairman of Flying Club

Jerry Tratlert of Wood River, a former resident of Granite City, has been elected chairman of the board of trustees for Travellers, a St. Louis area non-profit excursion flying club in which the combined membership purchases a DC-7 four engine airliner.

The St. Louis club of 160 members, which was formed this spring, recently made its first trip to Jamaica. Flight operations are supervised by the Federal Aviation Agency, and trips are scheduled throughout the U. S. and the world at approximately 2 1/2 cents per mile for each passenger.

Alderman Robertson had called for the engineer and commission to investigate the traffic control system at the intersection and submit a report to the council.

Mayor Partney advised him the city no longer has a traffic engineer, and that preliminary investigation of the suit disclosed the electric traffic signals were flashing at the time of the two-vehicle accident.

GC Steel Sales And Earnings Up In 2nd Quarter

The demand for steel picked up in the second quarter of this year as compared with the first and earnings of Granite City Steel Co. improved, Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman of the board and president, announced yesterday after a meeting of the board of directors in St. Louis.

The net income of $2,831,000, or 65 cents per share of common stock, for the three months ended June 30, compared with $2,775,000, or 64 cents per share, for the second quarter of last year when the company also was operating at a high level, Veeder said.

Granite City Steel's net sales for the second quarter this year were $42,043,000 compared with $42,140,000 in the same period last year. Veeder pointed out that the company, largest steel producer in the area, earned 6.5% on sales in the second quarter of this year, the same as in the second quarter of 1965.

Operating Efficiency Gains
"Gains in operating efficiency in several important departments," he said, "enabled us to maintain profitably and absorb the impact of higher employment costs and interest expense, increases in prices for many supplies and the fact that one of our two blast furnaces, blown in last year after being relined, is not yet producing its full quota of pig iron for steelmaking."

The board of directors declared the year's third quarter cash dividend of 35 cents per share of common stock, payable Sept. 15, to stockholders of record Aug. 25. The company paid cash dividends of 35 cents per share for each of the first two quarters this year.

Granite City Steel's second quarter results brought first half net income to $4,584,000, $1.05 per share of common stock, compared with $4,017,000, or $1.20 per share, in the first half of 1965 when the company got off to a faster start because of a strong first quarter. Net sales for the first half of 1966 were $80,268,000 compared with $78,297,000 in the first half of 1965.

Production, Shipments
Veeder said Granite City Steel produced 370,000 tons of ingot steel in the second quarter this year and shipped 296,000 tons of flat rolled carbon steel products compared with 290,000 tons of 1965 production of 384,000 ingot tons and shipments of 301,000 tons.

Shipments in the second quarter last year included some semi-finished products—slabs and slabs—which can be sold only when the market for steel is unusually strong.

Veeder said second quarter shipments of plates, hot and cold rolled sheets, galvanized sheets and other regular finished flat rolled steel products were 7% higher in the second quarter this year than last.

Nick Nastoff, 68, Dies of Heart Ailment

Nick Nastoff, 68, a board member of the Holy Trinity Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church, 1320 Grand avenue, Madison, died at 10:35 a.m. Tuesday at St. Mary Hospital, East St. Louis. He had been a patient there five days, and was ill two weeks with a heart condition.

Mr. Nastoff, born in the eastern European country of Macedonia, lived in East St. Louis for 45 years. A resident of 220 Hillwood drive in Canteen township, he was employed as a cooper by the Hunter Packing Co. before his retirement. His wife, Heddy, died in 1961.

Surviving are his son, Troy Nastoff of the Canteen township residence, and three grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements appear in today's obituary column.

Red Cross, Residents Aid W. Madison Fire Victims

The Tri-City chapter of the American Red Cross has paid out $7,084 and residents of Madison have contributed clothing, food and cash to aid 12 adults and 30 children made homeless in last Sunday's fire in West Madison that leveled a four-family flat and two houses.

The individual donations have been made in a door-to-door solicitation conducted by 50 members of the Madison Junior Dramatics club, directed by Miss Marcella Daffin, 1124 Douglas street.

Miss Daffin said today the families still are in peculiar need of clothing for both adults and children.

VA Reports

Education Benefits to New Veterans May be Delayed

At the beginning of July, 197,847 peace-time and Vietnam veterans had signed up to take advantage of the education program of the new GI Bill, the Veterans Administration reported today.

Not wanting anyone to feel the necessity's sharp pinch, the VA advises the back-to-school veterans to be prepared to pay their own way for the first two months.

The law requires the Veterans Administration to make payments to the veterans after they have attended school for a full month. Payment normally is made on the 20th of the month after the month of attendance.

The basic payment is $100 a month. This increases if the veteran is married and has dependents. The basic payment decreases if he does not attend school full time.

Venice Twp. Taxes Hit 76% of Goal

After three days of balancing books, Venice township tax collectors for 1965 totaled $1,900, 884. Collector Frank Reidelberger Jr. said that this met 76% of the expected bill set at $2,500,007.

Late returns for personal property and real estate taxes now are to be mailed directly to the county courthouse in Edinburg, 280 to 276 marriages, represents the local collection office a decline of 1 1/2%.

June Brides Slipping—Fewer Weddings Last Month

Although June is traditionally wise on a downward trend, dropping to 285 last month, compared to 302 in June 1965.

The number of boys born in June 1965 totaled 163, while last month 149 boys arrived. However, girls showed a gain from 129 last year in June to 137 this past month.

Three sets of twins were born in June 1965 and just one set in June 1966.

A 15% increase, however, during June of this year was evident in the county deathrate. For 177 deaths were recorded in 1966, compared to 151 during the same month last year.

Checkerboard Squares Given Surprise Visit

The Checkerboard Squares and the 3-Twirlers received a surprise visit from two leading square dance personalities from the Greater St. Louis Folk and Square Dancing Federation during a session Monday night at the YMCA.

The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Armand Schlanghe of South St. Louis County. She is known as "Mrs. Square Dance of St. Louis," having taught more than 4000 dancers in the past 15 years as well as being responsible for visits of most of the national touring callers and recording artists to the St. Louis area.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlanghe came to see Shelby Boyd in action at her own class and gave some pointers in microphone technique and presentation. They commended the local group for the impression made in representing the area at the 15th national square dance convention last month at Indianapolis, Ind.

Tickets Available for Rotary Horse Show

Tickets for the Granite City Rotary Club's Horse show next month are now available. It was announced today by Edward Meng, publicity chairman.

Interested Quasi-Citizens may purchase tickets at Graham's Book store, Nidringhaus and Delmar avenues, at a booth being set up in St. Elizabeth Hospital's lobby, or from any member of the Interact and Granite City Rotary clubs.

The horse show has as a goal a $6000 electronic photograph, an electrical machine designed to record brain waves to give an accurate picture of any brain disease or damage.

The machine is to be placed in St. Elizabeth Hospital so it will not be necessary to send persons with head injuries to other hospitals on all occasions. Presently there are four staff members at the hospital who are qualified to use the EEG.

Beginning at 1 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 28, will be one of the finest displays and exhibition of horses in the Midwest when horses from the stables throughout the regional Mississippi valley will be presented at the Tri-City Speedway, four miles north of Granite City on Route 151.

Background of Palomino
In order that spectators might more enjoy the proceedings at the show, Meng has provided the Press-Record with several background stories on many of the horses which will be entered into competition.

One of them concerns the Palomino, a golden horse originating from Spain. Outcroppings of this beauty white mane and tail are the Tennessee Walkers, American saddle horses and quarter horses.

The name Palomino is a delight to the imagination, but the meaning is not. Its Spanish translation literally means "pigeon" or "stained shirt." Students of the language insist that neither of these meanings could refer to the dazzling Palomino. They would rather change the name to Palomilla, the Spanish word for a flying moth or milk-white steed.

When the first Palomino to be discovered in America (1800) became known as the "old hat" after several generations, American horsemen brought in chestnut and bay Arabian Thoroughbreds, American saddle horses, and Quarter horses and bred them to the Palomino. By doing this, they produced only more than one color, but also three fixed types of Palomino—the stock horse, the pleasure horse and the parade horse.

The Palomino stock horses are actually glorified quarter horses, and the Palomino parade horses are the most famous of them all. They can ride cowboys attempting to

Water Co. Says City is to Blame For Line Break

A third party complaint against the city is being filed by the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. in connection with suits filed against the water company for damages in three homes Jan. 9, 1962.

Notice from the water company was received Monday night by the city council and was referred to the assistant city attorney.

Alderman Johnson, chairman of the Fire and Water committee, said the action was a disgrace, and added that it was disgraceful that the firm even was permitted to operate in the city.

Water Lines and Sewers
Also critical of the utility's action was Alderman Rutledge, who noted that while the water company blamed the city's sewer system for undermining the water line, causing breaks, the city had discovered two instances where city sewers had been broken for water line installations.

"We uncovered these in the 2900 block of Harding Blvd. and at a catch basin at 2400 Illinois avenue," Rutledge said, "if that happens again, we'll file suit against the company."

In its notice, the water company pointed out it was being sued for $7500 by Lee and Beatrice Harlan, 1811 Clark avenue; for $7500 by Delbert and Doris Ambush of 1221 Clark avenue; and for $15,000 by Andrew and Sylvia Oriskany of 3400 Terrace lane.

The water company claims the city's faulty construction and maintenance of sewers in the area caused the support for an eight-inch water main to give away, resulting in breaks in the water line.

The water flowed into the homes, damaging furnaces and basement appliances and furnishings. At the time, sanitary sewers were being repaired in the area.

Suit Against Mayor
Also referred to the city attorney was notice of a civil suit against Mayor Partney and the Illinois Liquor Control Commission by George Edward Keith of Keith's Lounge, 2701 Washington avenue, for suspension of a liquor license. Damages in the amount of $10,300 are to be sought. The mayor automatically is city liquor commissioner.

The action took place in April, when the liquor commission commented that he suspended the license in connection with a charge of selling liquor to a minor.

The suspension was appealed to the state and was denied June 6 by the state liquor board, the mayor said. "That's so much legal trouble," he said.

When asked by a council member if he had acted with approval of city attorney, the mayor answered that he always obtained legal advice.

Town Fund Loan Of $12,000 Repaid

During a brief town board meeting, conducted by Granite City alderman in advance of Monday night's council session, a $12,000 loan totaling $15,500 were approved.

Of the total, $15,450 was for town fund expenses, including payment of $12,000 to Granite City Trust & Savings Bank to retire a $12,000 loan anticipation warrant. Relief expenditures amounted to $131.

Under city business, the city's still list including such items as—$100 expense allowance for Victor H. Koehnig, civil defense director; $1425 paid to Jack D. Huggins for auditing city accounts; $4738 paid to Tom Skerle, contractor, for curb and sidewalk replacement; $133 paid to the U. S. Treasurer for rental of Army Depot ground for the sewage treatment plant.

Erwin C. Hoescher, consultant for the Air Pollution Control Board and a professor at Washington University, was paid $120 for 12 hours services. He is no relation to William Hoescher, secretary of the Manufacturers Association of the Tri-Cities, or Wilfred Hoescher, vice-president of Granite City Steel Co.

Council members voted a second time to hold up payment of $241 to Royal Chemical, Inc., for two drums of insect spray. Clyde Boyd, chairman, said the Sanitation committee wants to study the city's spray chemical needs further, and he asked for a report from the controller on such purchases for the past two years.

Three members of Clarence Henry's Mercer Juniors have been selected for the Macoupin County Khoury League all-star game at Gillespie, Ill., Sunday.

Pitcher Donnie Rains, 7-1, and catcher Roger Cackley, batting .313, were picked by a Khoury League committee while center fielder Jeff Jones, batting .428, was chosen by the Juniors' manager and coaching staff.

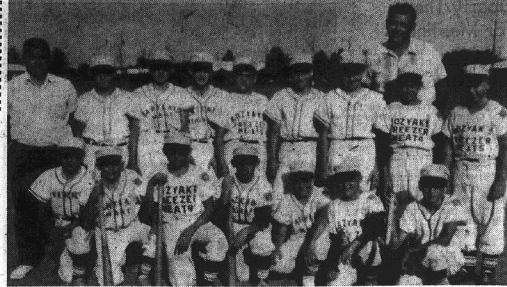

The 4:30 p.m. game at the Gillespie ball diamond will see the Macoupin all-stars, managed by Southwest, Kiwanis' helmsman Paul Fultz, meeting a selected

Mexican Honorary In Clutch Victory

Mercie Mendoza's eighth-inning single drove in the winning run as Mexican Honorary took a 10-9 extra-inning win from Liberty Home in a Class A League makeup game Tuesday night at Wilson Park.

Sonny Antoff homered and tripled for the winners and John Measli, Bob Jones and John Sannes each had round-trippers for Liberty Home.

team from the Art Gaines Baseball School at Hunnewell, Mo. Tonight, the Macoupin all-star team gathers at Gillespie for a practice session and to map strategy for Sunday's game.

Area Softball Tourneys Continue; Class B Regional Begins Saturday

Another in the series of softball tournaments at Wilson Park bows in Saturday, while one that has been in progress for three weekends will end on Sunday.

Opening at 7:30 p.m. Saturday is the three-weekend Granite City American Softball Association Class B fast pitch regional tournament. Three teams are entered.

Closing out, as far as local competition goes, is the Granite City ASA regional slow-pitch tourney with a final game at 7 p.m. Sunday, and possibly another contest at 8 p.m. Sunday.

Four teams have survived this slow pitch tourney. As the top four clubs in the meet, they advance to the state tourney at Caseyville July 30-Aug. 6. National competition is Sept. 2-6 in Parma, O.

Merchants Undefeated

Top team in the slow pitch regional has been the Merchants, who notched victories over Waterloo (11-5), Club Delmar (14-9) and Mexican Honorary (18-9) and last weekend beat Buzz's (9-8).

Buzz's beat Zip's (9-0), Falstaff (23-8) and Community Heights (18-5) before dropping in the losers' bracket, where the squad downed Mexican Honorary 12-1.

By virtue of this win, Buzz's meets Merchants in the 7 p.m. final Sunday to decide the local regional champ. If the Merchants lose, then another game at 8 p.m. is forced, with the winner taking the tournament title.

Polish Hall Defending Champ

As for the other two teams, Mexican Honorary beat Rozzycki Realty 17-2 before losing to the Merchants and then beat Sam's 11-10 and Community Heights Reds 17-9.

The Reds had an initial 11-3 tourney win over Local 50, beat Liberty Home 9-8 and downed Club Delmar 9-5 before the loss to Mexican Honorary.

Making the Caseyville jaunt along with the Merchants, Buzz's, Mexican Honorary and Community Heights Reds will be Polish Hall. Polish Hall was not in the tourney here but, being last year's state champion, the team automatically returns to the state tournament.

Class B Tourney

Granite City Steel Credit Union meets Kirchner's in the 8:30 p.m. opener of the ASA Class B tourney Saturday. The Merchants will meet the winner of this game July 31. The two losers play Aug. 6 and the loser's bracket winner Aug. 6 plays the unbeaten team the next day. Another game could then result.

The winner of this regional advances to Urbana for the state tournament Aug. 19-28.

Illinois is one of the few states scheduling Class B tournaments. There is no national competition.

Other Upcoming Tourneys

Two other tournaments loom on the horizon, although one is the Aug. 17-22 Class A fast pitch state tourney scheduled at Alton.

Mathews Chevrolet is still the only local team figured in this tourney, but plans are still somewhat indefinite. Two clubs from Alton, including the host Alton Northside Boosters, Belleville and an All-Wood team, are entered.

State competition will be in Decatur Sept. 1-5 involving four state winners from Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and Wisconsin and four metropolitan teams from Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville and Milwaukee, plus the host team from Decatur.

Indianapolis will be the site of the World Tournament in which the Aurora Sealmasters will be defending their title Sept. 15-23.

Labor Day Invitational

Before this, however, Wilson Park will host its Labor Day invitational softball tournament. This, a slow pitch affair, will involve about 16 local teams.

Park Supt. Harold Brown reports that several inquiries have been received concerning dates and pairings.

Announcements concerning this tourney will be made soon.

Hearts Team 'Going to Prison'

Mercer Hits Road Sunday; Hearts, Mitchell at Home

This Sunday is one of eight dates throughout the season in which the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City League's schedules a direct rival of an earlier date.

Turning the May 29 schedule around finds Mercer of Granite City at Troy, Collinsville at Granite City's Hearts-Library Home, East St. Louis' Harper at Mitchell, Maryville at East St. Louis' Polish-American and East Alton at Pocahontas. That's the lineup up this Sunday.

Mercer manager Don Crabtree

Post 113 Gets 19th Victory

American Legion Post 113 continues to play the brand of baseball that nearly won it the North Division District 22 season flag.

In a game at St. Charles Tuesday night the squad beat Post 312 by an 8-4 score.

The combined hurling efforts of Tom Stitch, Mike Shambrone and Tony Griggs resulted in 11 strikeouts. Scoring once in the first inning and four times in the next frame, Post 113 was never in serious danger.

Charlie Collins and Fred Hoffman each had a double and single, while Bill Grable laced out a three-base hit as the team notched its 19th win against four defeats.

It was a nine-inning affair, as are all Legion games in Missouri.

Post 113 still has a point to make with Edwardsville, winner of the North Division race and the District 22 playoffs. The two teams will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Edwardsville.

Post 113 ..... 123 456 789 R H E
Post 312 ..... 141 000 002 8 11 2
Batteries—Stitch, Shambrone (4), Griggs (7) and Hoffman, Grable (7); Settles, Ehlman (2) and Eilers.

finds all this interesting but he's more concerned with the schedule's practical implications. For example, a doubleheader with Red Division leader Maryville the following Sunday, July 31.

"I'm planning to go with either Pat Harris or Wayne Gavillet against T.T.D.Y.," Crabtree revealed, "and have Bruce Thompson ready for one of the Maryville games."

Harris, 3-0, and Gavillet, 2-0, were doubleheader winners themselves in a July 4 twin affair with Polish-American. And if either falters Sunday in the 2:30 p.m. game at Troy, there is 8-0 Bruce Thompson.

At 1:30 can Mercer keep winning?

Hearts at Menard

Actually, Mercer has ten games left — one inside prison walls Sept. 17 at Menard prison, Chester, where Ed Opich's Hearts-Library Home team will pay a visit this Saturday for an exhibition game.

Twenty-five players, including the manager and coaches, are allowed to make the trip to Chester. The Hearts will meet behind the Sacred Heart Church about 7 a.m. Saturday for the 85-mile journey. The game is at noon.

"I'm not sure who I'll pitch at the prison," Opich said, "but I'm pretty set on Steve Leik for Sunday's game with Collinsville. He doesn't walk anybody and he throws the ball hard."

Collinsville will be bringing an 8-6 record into the 2:30 p.m. game at Wilson Park's Diamond No. 1. The Hearts will be hoping to avert another defeat. Glen Gutjahr's team has beaten the Hearts twice this season.

Mitchell Hosts Harper

Revenge will figure in the other area Inter-City League game this Sunday, too. I'll be Harper out to avenge a 20-1 drubbing Mitchell A.C. handed the team on the May 29 date. This will be a 2:30 p.m. affair at Mitchell.

Injuries have plagued Mitchell. Centerfielder Dave Sparks was spiked in the July 10 all-star game and is still out. Rightfielder Steve Schardan is having some trouble with his leg and has missed games.

Just plain absenteeism has hurt the club, also. Two of manager Wendel Corey's hurlers missed the game last week. As it was, Mary Brokaw didn't disappoint Corey at all in his first most effort, and he'll be on hand again if needed.

Kirchner Hands First Classic Loss to Mathews

Kirchner's mounted a 14-hit attack off starter Pat Harris and reliever Ray Hoffman and hand-hurled Chevrolet's first Classic League loss at Wilson Park Tuesday night.

The 7-5 win was Kirchner's second in ten games as it warmed up for the Class B tourney starting Saturday. Mathews' record is 9-1 as it heads for Springfield, Mo., for a series with the Barnes team this weekend.

The Merchants made their record 6-4 when Kenny Mitchell hurled a two-hitter against Granite City Steel Credit Union in the other Classic game.

George Sykes' triple and four Merchants singles added up to five runs in the sixth for the 5-1 win. Jack Angle and Bill Crabtree had Credit Union's only hits. The losers are 3-7 now.

Tony & Joe's Suffers First Defeat, 16-6

Jacobmeyer's handed Tony & Joe's its first defeat in 35 & Over Wilson Park activity Monday night, 16-6. Jim Keiter homered twice for the winners, now 4-4, while Stan Serwatka, Harry Taylor and Larry Barnhart also hit home runs.

George Nemmering homered for Tony & Joe's, now 7-1.

Leadoff batter Lefty Harris had a single, double, triple and homer in another game that saw local 16 crash Midtown Pharmacy 3-12. Rev Buckingham also homered for the winners, who are now 2-6. Dick Stanton, Ed Reimager and Hagmauer hit homers for Midtown, whose record is 5-8.

Nameoki Methodist Leading Bat Loop

Nameoki Methodist, by virtue of a 10-7 victory over Suburban Baptist Tuesday night at Wilson school, took sole possession of first place in the Quad-Cities Church League Black Division with an 8-3 record.

Good Shepherd EUB was knocked out of a first-place tie in the Black Division when Third Baptist won 22-17 in a wild contest at Lake school Tuesday night.

Third Baptist manager Don Crabtree homered twice and Jerry Currutt homered once for the winners, while Gary Portell and Mike Ivey homered for EUB.

GC Truck Driver Denies Charge of Upsetting Train

Walter Malone, 23, 1922 Quincy street, and Steve Bast, 18, of 712 Vogt street, Edwardsville pleaded not guilty in Green county circuit court at Carrollton last week to charges of reckless driving filed after the two men reportedly ran a tractor along the G&O Railroad tracks near White Hall and allegedly caused the derailment of three freight cars and two engine units.

Green county authorities quoted Malone as saying that he lost control of his tractor, causing it to run in a ditch. Malone called Bast for assistance and, with a wrecker, the two men were able to get the tractor out of the ditch, but started driving it on the railroad tracks. The G&O engine units and three cars loaded with wheat coming from the opposite direction, crashed into the tractor. The two men jumped to safety but the tractor was demolished. The train engineer, Harry Booth of Playter, Mo., was taken to Passavant Hospital in Carrollton with chest injuries. The circuit clerk's office at Carrollton said Tuesday the men entered not guilty pleas before Associate Judge L. A. Mehrhoff. No date for a hearing has been set.

SIU Nepalese Student Says, 'Educate Women'

To solve the critical food shortage and to raise living standards in underdeveloped countries, educate the women.

That's the conviction of a young home science teacher from Nepal who is currently studying for master's degree in home economics at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Prabha Basyant said in her country farm women distill a great extent the kind of food crops that are raised. For educating the women in the requirements of good nutrition and in the use of sometimes unfamiliar food stuffs, they will coax or coerce their men into growing a greater variety, "which will improve the family's health and its economic condition," she explained.

Women from Nepal—and other underdeveloped countries—need to be educated to take advantage of health services, maternity hospitals, child welfare centers, family planning centers and other available agencies, which have been provided with U. S. AID funds, she said.

In relation to this, Southern Illinois University last week signed a contract with the U. S. Agency for International Development to send a team of educators to help that country develop its secondary education program, with emphasis on home economics, agriculture, business and other vocational-technical subjects.

She will then return to Nepal to help broaden and strengthen the home economics teacher-education there.

U. S. Will Share Cost of Two Trucks for Treatment Plant

After several tries and at least two turn downs, the city succeeded in getting approval for a grant of federal tax funds toward the purchase of two tank trucks to haul sludge from the sewerage treatment plant to the city dump.

Council members were advised the success through a letter presented during Monday night's meeting from the U. S. Department of Interior. Mayor Parney had submitted the latest request to the federal government.

The city is to forward to the department, the bid figures for the two trucks. About 30% of the total cost ($2350) will be paid by the federal government.

A letter from the physician who gave physical examinations to the 10 employees for the treatment plant advised council members that one of the two reported with high blood pressure is undergoing treatment and his blood pressure is going down, while the other only has high blood pressure, but also a truck knee.

Title Insurance wasn't so important in 1902

When a person bought a house and lot in 1902 it's a safe bet that the property had changed hands only once or twice. Not so today. When you buy a house and lot now, the land has probably been sold, resold, sub-divided and sold again. And every such transfer of title adds to the possibility of a fraudulent document, an undischarged claim against the property, a mistake in record-keeping—any of which could become a defect in the title and a threat to your ownership.

A Title Insurance policy from Chicago Title and Trust Company protects you against such threats. And Chicago Title and Trust Company provides the kind of rapid, efficient service that only the company with 119 years of experience in Illinois real estate titles can offer—with the safety that can come only from the company with the largest financial assets to protect you against loss.

Record Number of Cubs Tour Camp

A record turnout of over 130 ten-and-a-half-year-old cub scouts and their fathers took part in the annual Cahokia Mound Council Webelos Den Day at Camp Sunnen near Potosi, Mo., during the weekend, tabulations showed this week.

The outdoor event centers around areas of interest to boys of this age, "including many dads who were boys again for a day," Chairman Alex Tarpo said.

Divided into troops, the cubs and their fathers were taken on an exploratory tour of the 300-acre camp, which has been rated as one of the finest scout camps in the country. On the tour, they saw how food is stored and prepared and inspected the conservation projects that are a part of good land development, the health lodge and the troop sites where scouts live during their week at camp.

"A visit to the nature lodge provided them with a close-up look at snakes, turtles, lizards, frogs and other wonders of the mysterious world of nature. At the rope yard, they were taught how to come to the aid of a tenderfoot knot, and then participated in a knot-tying relay with their dads," Tarpo said. "Members of the camp staff demonstrated how to use a compass and identify trail signs, how to tie the simple bandages, and how to build the proper fire to cook a meal for four in the open."

"The aquatic staff put on a canoeing demonstration, and the cubs and their dads soon found out that keeping a canoe going straight depends upon teamwork by the paddlers."

"Two of the most popular areas of camp for the boys were the archery range and the rifle range. Here a few dads soon found that their sons were pretty good at hitting the bullseye. For many of the cub scouts this was the first time they had fired a real gun, and a great many eyes were heard as they watched the boys and men prepare a full dinner of meat, potatoes, carrots and onions."

Purposes of the outdoor experience, Tarpo said, is to create in Webelos cub scouts a desire to know more about the Boy Scout troop and to give them a preview of scout camping. Many of the cubs, who will soon be Boy Scouts, are planning to attend Camp Sunnen next summer.

Assisting Tarpo were Mrs. Mary Tarpo, Mrs. Marlene Madson, Jon Tarpo, Mrs. Opal Menke, Vincent Gnaedinger, Edwin Menke, Larry Winkler, Don Neathery, Donald Bright and members of the camp staff.

Cub packs in attendance were Packs 6, 7, 13, 19, 20, 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 122 from the United Way district. Packs 26, 27, 32, 33, 34 and 48 from the Illinois District and Pack 37 from the Kickapoo district.

Quadrant sponsoring groups represented were: Maryville, Washington, Webster and Wilson PTA's, the Army Depot, the University of Cordelia Lutheran, Central Christians and St. Joseph's and St. Elizabeth's Catholic Churches.

Legislators Ask Probe of Alton State Hospital

The Illinois State Mental Health Department has been asked by three state legislators to look into a series of complaints about Alton State Hospital which were received after 12 deaths occurred at the hospital between July 1 and 18. Thirteen of the deaths occurred during last week's heat wave.

The request was made by State Sen. Paul Simon, Democrat of Cook County, State Rep. Lloyd "Curly" Harris, Democrat of Granite City, and State Rep. Leonard J. Kennedy, Democrat of Alton.

In a letter to Dr. Harold Vistoky, director of the Mental Health Department, they asked that "something more" than the usual one-day tour by legislators be done in making the investigation.

Meanwhile, an official of the department mentioned that Anna State Hospital, announced he had made a survey of the hospital after hearing of the deaths early this week and found the allegations to be false.

Dr. Robert Stock, a mental health director, said the charges he went to the hospital to investigate appeared to be "rumor turned into a fact."

Such charges as maggots in patients' dressings, for example, "don't happen in any hospital," he said. He was asked that "something more" be done in making the investigation.

Senator Simon, superintendent of the hospital, had only one electric fan. Dr. Stock said he counted three large built-in exhaust fans plus other portable fans.

In their letter to Dr. Vistoky suggested that a "citizens committee" be appointed to make the investigation, "perhaps two clergymen, two doctors and two representatives of the community."

Legislators also suggested that a full-time staff member of the Mental Health Department be assigned as an employee of the investigating committee.

Senate Bill Tightens Water Pollution Law

Stringent controls against pollution of navigable waterways by boats or vessels and establishment of fines and other penalties for violators is contained in U. S. Senate approval of an amended version of the Federal Water Pollution Control Amendments and Clean Rivers Restoration Act of 1968. The Senate action was noted in a report by the Waterways Journal.

The bill, which would affect all craft operating in the Mississippi River, would authorize more than $6 billion in federal tax fund grants over the next six years to pay part of an estimated $20 billion needed for what House leaders call "a minimum start" on nationwide water pollution problems.

The measure now goes to the House and would become effective 30 days after it is signed by the President. It provides for a study by the Secretary of Interior, the Secretary of the Army, the Coast Guard and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare of the extent of pollution from boats and vessels on the Great Lakes and navigable waterways. Results of the study are to be reported to Congress no later than July 1 of next year.

The bill also amends the Refuse Act of 1899 and the Oil Pollution Act of 1924, extending the enforcement provisions of the Act and transferring its administration to the Secretary of Interior. The act prohibits dumping of waste and oil from boats or vessels and invests in the Coast Guard the authority to revoke the license of a master or other licensed officers found guilty of violations.

Zoning Change Clampdown Being Planned by GC Council

Nothing that numerous zoning changes have been made for development of apartment and business areas that failed to materialize, Granite City Council members decided Monday night to cancel such changes if the developers do not act in six months.

The recommendation was made by Alderman Johnson, who said several such changes had been made in his ward "and nothing happens."

His suggestion is to be taken up with the City Plan Commission and an ordinance prepared to amend the zoning code. The amendment would be for property changed from one classification to another to revert to its original designation if a developer does not carry out his plans in six months.

The city has hired Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission to update and modernize its zoning code and land use maps as well as develop a master growth plan for the city.

Several aldermen complained the air-conditioner for the council room was not functioning properly and should be repaired. Mayor Partney remarked that low voltage was being blamed on a representative of Illinois Power Co. had been in earlier Monday to inspect the unit and check on the voltage.

Wilson Named to Board Of 1st National Bank

The election of Marion E. Wilson, president of S. M. Wilson & Co., general contractors, to the board of directors of First National City National Bank, was announced Tuesday by S. E. Pershall, chairman of the bank's board.

Wilson, who resides with his wife, Rhoda, and four children at 1306 Twenty-seventh street, has a degree in architecture and was with firms in Yakima, Wash., and East St. Louis, before joining the S. M. Wilson firm in 1952. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Wilson.

He is a native of Wood River, but the family moved here when he was young. He is a graduate of local schools and was enrolled at Texas Tech University prior to World War II. His service was in the U. S. Navy, and upon his discharge as a lieutenant commander he resumed his education at Texas Tech. Commenting on the election, Pershall said, "I feel very gratified that Mr. Wilson has consented to accept this position. We are confident that with his knowledge of local conditions and broad experience in the construction field, he will be a valuable addition to our organization."

GC School Secretarial Hiring Procedure Revised by Board

A revised secretarial and clerical hiring policy was approved by the Granite City school board Monday night, two months after the previous policy was adopted.

Under the new six-point policy, job applications will be made through the school district's personnel office and must be renewed annually in order to remain active; notices of the renewal requirement will be sent from the personnel office each January.

Training, successful work experience, personality, references and ability to perform the required work will be the main prerequisites for employment.

The candidate will be interviewed by the personnel administrator and the administrator for whom she would work, and they will make a joint recommendation to Supt. Russell D. Johnson. If he agrees, the individual selected will be recommended to the board.

Drop Application Date Factor

A May 18 policy statement had said that "all things being equal among two or more candidates, the selection will be based upon date of application." The first five applying were to be interviewed, with the next five interviewed if necessary, and additional groups of five until a selection was made.

This wording has been dropped, along with a statement that "no person related to other school personnel shall be placed in the same building with the relative, or at the board of education office."

The May policy also called for separate candidate lists on hiring a newly graduated person, if that person seems best suited for the position to be filled.

May Policy Not Followed

Supt. Johnson said the two-month-old policy did "not insure the best person for a particular job." He did not follow it in a selection submitted to the board July 11, approved by a split vote. At that time, it was decided to review and possibly change the policy.

The new policy was adopted in a vote by President Monroe Vose, Dr. E. W. Walton, secretary, and Board Members George Moore Jr., Carl Macios and William Harris.

Members absent were Royce Timmons and Treasurer Ronald Dillard.

Neutral on Secretary Union

Dr. Walton was authorized to reply to a letter from Edwin Reiske, president of the Tri-City Teachers & Labor Council, AFL-CIO, regarding the council's wish that secretaries in the school administrative office become affiliated with a union.

Reiske had related that at its July 6 meeting, the labor council approved a plan for Office Employees Local 13 to seek to organize the school office staff.

Reiske asked for school district cooperation or that he be notified if the district does not intend to cooperate.

Up to Each Employee

The reply from the board expressed the neutrality of the proposal, relating that it will neither obstruct nor participate in the organizing, leaving the decision up to each individual directly involved.

It was indicated that the local school system does not come under NLRB regulation.

All other school employee groups—teachers, custodians, maintenance workers and cafeteria employees—have union representation.

The board this summer adopted a secretarial salary schedule extending through June 30, 1968.

Approve Lead Chauffeur

In other business Monday night, the board approved a request from the teamsters and chauffeurs' union that one of the three school truck drivers be designated as a "lead man."

It will be paid 10 cents an hour more than the other chauffeurs.

Signed three-year working agreements previously approved by the board have been received from the chauffeurs, custodians, carpenters, laborers and painters, Supt. Johnson announced.

Taxing Agencies In New Appeal To Save RR Taxes

The validity of refund orders by the Madison county circuit court in the railroad tax assessment cases has been challenged in a new appeal to the Illinois Supreme Court, Burton C. Bernard, attorney handling the cases for the county and taxing agencies involved, announced today.

Bernard said the new appeal is the final course of action left in the taxing agencies in an effort to save a large sum of protested taxes estimated at varying amounts up to $2 million.

Pendency of the new litigation, however, will not prevent refund of the protested tax monies, Bernard explained.

As reported last week, refund of the protested tax money, some of which has been held in escrow since as far back as 1937, may be made to the railroads under circuit court judgments entered in April after the Illinois Supreme Court reversed an earlier circuit court ruling in favor of the county.

In the event of an eventual ruling in favor of the county by the Supreme Court, the county would be required to sue the railroads for the return of the money that is to be refunded to them, Bernard said.

Covers Five Years

The railroad tax cases, involving protested taxes paid by the 12 operating lines for the tax years 1957 to 1962, have been in the courts more than two years. The railroads alleged they were overtaxed because assessed valuations were made at 100% of fair cash value, while those of individual taxpayers were made at 50 to 60%, thus discriminating against the rail lines.

In August, 1964, after six months of hearings, Circuit Judge James O. Monroe ruled against the railroads. His decision was appealed to the Illinois Supreme Court by the railroads. Early last April, the Supreme Court reversed Monroe's ruling and at that time the judgments and refund orders were entered in circuit court.

Bernard said that the railroads are demanding their money and that tabulation of the amounts due each line is expected to begin soon. The money paid under protest by the rail lines has been held in escrow by the county treasurer's office.

Estimated at $2 Million

The attorney has estimated the amount of money involved at $2 million but said today an accurate figure cannot be determined until all of the protested taxes

Transportation Needed For Cancer Victim, 12

An appeal for volunteer drivers to make daily trips to Barnes Hospital taking a 12-year-old cancer victim for treatment, was made today by Mrs. Julia Davis, service chairman for the local branch of the American Cancer Society.

"The little Granite City girl doesn't know she has the disease," Mrs. Davis said, adding that the child has daily appointments for treatment at the St. Louis hospital at 1:30 p.m.

Anyone wanting to volunteer their services is asked to call Mrs. Davis at TR 7-8886 or TR 7-0120.

Mrs. Georgetta Cave Dies: 50-Year Resident

Mrs. Georgetta Cave, 84, a patient for three years at the Madison Nursing Home, 1521 Second street, Madison, died at 9 a.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was a patient for one day.

Mrs. Cave, born in Fort Scott, Kan., was a 50-year resident of the Quad-Cities. Her husband, John, died in 1936.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Ruby Thompson—Granite City, and Mrs. Grace Deaton, Fremont, Mo.; a son, Ralph Daniels, Whitehall, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Jennie Lindholm, Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Jessie Dietweiser, Godfrey, and Mrs. Claude Haynes, Wood River; 20 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren and several great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements appear in today's obituary column.

paid over the five-year period by the railroads involved eventually is tabulated by the county treasurer.

George Musso, Madison county treasurer, said he does not believe the figure will reach $2 million. Until refund checks are prepared, he has "no idea" as to the amount, he said.

Bernard has pointed out that whatever the final amount, the loss represents funds that were never received by the taxing districts, although operating expenses were budgeted and spent in anticipation of income they expected from the rail lines.

This, in turn, created a delinquent tax bill to be paid from other tax sources.

GC Budget

man Moerlen was absent on vacation.

Strong protests were voiced by Alderman Green, who insisted that $85,000 be needed for sidewalks in North Granite. He was aided by Alderman Whitmer that perhaps it would be better to try for drainage and sewers first.

Special Projects Cutback
The $118,500 cut in special improvements was presented by Alderman Boyd and included the $65,000 for North Granite sidewalks. Green supported the cut, which was opposed by Aldermen Sternberg and Thompson.

Projects removed from the budget were:
New sidewalks—
East side of Johnson road from Clark avenue to Edgewood drive—$1780.
South side of West 25th street from Ohio avenue to Bryan avenue—$570.

North side of East 25th street from Namoli road to Anchorage Homes—$190.

West side of Edgewood drive from O'Hara to Willow avenue—$60.

West side of Edgewood drive from Devon Hill lane to Johnson road—$400.

All sidewalks in North Granite—$83,100.

Street Resurfacing
Niedringhaus avenue from Poplar to Walnut street—$11,580.
Iowa street from 20th to 21st street—$3375.

Washington avenue from 20th to 22nd street—$4500.
Washington avenue from 27th street to Namoli road—$17,150.

Drainage and Miscellaneous Items
Drainage of Pontoon road at Johnson road—$2500.
Curbs on West 22nd street from Illinois avenue to the alley—$1000.

Curbs on 17th street from Cleveland blvd. to State street—$2150.
Sidewalk and curb repair around Civic Park—$1800.

Critical of Method
Thompson commented that Boyd's presentation appeared to be a concerted action by a certain group without knowledge of the full council.

Further cuts were recommended but failed to get support. Fry asked that $10,000 be removed for getting options for the proposed new north-south street along the railroad tracks, and Rutledge suggested cutting the Missouri avenue resurfacing project to two blocks instead of five.

Other Cuts
Boyd then took the floor and offered other budget cuts which were accepted.

From the police department section, the $800 for a breathalyzer was removed.
From the fire department $1000 was cut from hose and nozzle purchases, reducing the figure to $2000, and $800 was removed for blacktopping a parking area at the main fire station.

From the sanitation department, $4000 for spray chemicals was removed along with $3500 for a station wagon and weed cutter and $1775 for a new insect fogging machine.

Clerical expenses for parking meters was cut by $400 from $900 to $500.

No Cut for Street Dept.
There were no reductions in the street department.

Equipment for the city hall, added at the last regular council session, were virtually knocked out of the budget.

Removed were $200 for desk and chair, $150 for file cabinets, $100 for drapes and $120 for lighting fixtures for the inspection department.

Cut from the city clerk-treasurer office furnishings was $150 for drapes. From the controller office, the items cut were $400 for three desks and chairs and $475 for floor covering.

A plan to refurbish the anteroom in the mayor's suite was eliminated. The items proposed were $450 for a divan, $50 for an end table, $25 for a lamp and $250 for carpeting.

Mayor Partney agreed that the cuts were "a step in the right direction, but not far enough."

Pay Details Pending
The item for salaries was discussed briefly, with most aldermen saying they favored pay hikes for all city employees. Several aldermen commented they preferred flat cost-of-living increases rather than the percentage boosts of 5% to 7% based on length of service proposed by the Personnel committee.

Alderman Thompson said his committee was still in negotiation with the Teamsters and a the type of toll set for the Chain of Rocks Bridge after the opening of the new bridge.

Says No Profit Allowed
Hyder argued that under federal law, only the tolls needed to operate can be collected. Maeras claimed the city is operating the bridge under state statutes and under a federal act.

He added that Missouri's attempts to control Chain of Rocks Bridge tolls are merely a "political camouflage."

Others at the meeting included John Gitchell, Madison city corporation counsel; Joseph Brooks of St. Louis, a Madison consulting engineer; and two members of the Engineer Corps staff and Hyder.

1938-44 Bond Period
Madison was in a position to retire debt on the bridge long before the 25-year purchase period ended in 1944, but delayed doing so in order to maintain control of the span, retain jobs for Madisonians and build a cash reserve. The surplus has been invested and the city hopes to use it to construct industrial buildings.

Mayor Maeras has contended that the law does not require a slash in tolls, but merely a decrease in toll revenue, following the retirement of debt.

Under this interpretation, the city would have had to cut tolls to limit annual income to $150,000 (5% of the purchase and remodeling investment, collected yearly to meet minimum operation and maintenance costs) after 1944; but it has not limited the income to this level.

City officials now plan to let the natural course of events—opening of the nearby free bridge—accomplish the revenue decrease. They have not decided how much to charge each vehicle, but believe that regardless of the amount of the toll the older, two-lane, crook-in-the-middle bridge will become nearly unused, producing little revenue and well under $15,000.

The bridge will be kept in operation through 1966-67 because officials feel "we owe it to the public and the bridge employees" to give competition with the free bridge a fair trial. A financial loss had been expected but the year may be profitable due to the delay in opening the new bridge.

"The Savings Bond Program has helped millions of Americans obtain financial security," says this prominent banker.

"Since its introduction in 1941, the Savings Bonds Program has aided millions of Americans in obtaining financial security and has provided the Federal Government with an effective method of financing a substantial portion of the public debt.

"Savings Bonds are no longer thought of merely as a means of supporting our nation's defense efforts, as they were in 1941. Today, they are recognized as sound investments, with many desirable characteristics for the most sophisticated saver as well as for the beginner trying to cultivate the savings habit.

"The American Bankers Association is singularly proud to be a part of this worthwhile program."

Amsted Sales, Earnings Set All-Time Records

Amsted Industries reported Tuesday that sales and earnings reached all-time highs in both the quarter and the nine months ended June 30, 1966. The board meeting in Chicago also declared a dividend of 50 cents payable Sept. 15.

Net income increased 21% to $4,503,000, or $1.04 per share, in the quarter ended June 30, compared to the previous record of $3,718,000, or $1.34 per share, in the same period last year. Sales amounted to $57,386,000, up from $50,206,000.

Earnings in the nine months ended June 30, 1966 amounted to $10,506,000, or $3.83 per share, up 12% from the previous record of $9,376,000, or $3.30 per share, a year ago. Sales increased to $159,473,000 from $138,261,000.

Joseph B. Lanterman, Amsted president, said the record earnings were attributable to increased sales of railroad products as a result of the high level of car building and to the continuation of high levels of activity in the company's other product lines. The company's local American Steel Foundries produces railroad equipment.

He added that earnings have improved from quarter to quarter in this fiscal year. Net income increased from $2,597,000, or $0.84 per share, in the quarter ended December 31, 1965, to $3,406,000, or $1.25 per share, in the quarter ended March 31, 1966, and to $4,503,000, or $1.64 per share, in the quarter just ended.

"Although the results in the quarter ending September 30, 1966 will be lower than the June 30 quarter because of regular vacation shutdowns," Lanterman noted, "earnings for the entire fiscal year will be markedly better than the all-time high at-

Indirect Steel Exports Help; Dumping Harmful

(Second of two reports on steel export-import trends, based on testimony last month on U. S. Senate Resolution 140 by Meyer Bernstein, International Affairs Director of the United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO. Such factors as transaction taxes levied on steel shipments to some foreign countries are believed to be creating an imbalance, raising the question of whether matching U. S. legislation is needed.)

A surge of imports, particularly during a long period of contract negotiations, is a serious matter. But we should not lose our sense of proportion.

Again and again the public is offered estimates as to the number of jobs which have been lost and saved.

There is no doubt, we are immune to foreign competition in steel and could not be out-competed by other export markets—particularly those in the field of fabricating and manufacturing products using steel—we would have more employment in our steel industry if imports could be shut off.

Unfortunately, the steel industry cannot be so isolated. We must be careful that in trying to solve our steel import problem we do not create new difficulties for our exports generally, including indirect exports of steel.

It is easy for us to count the number of tons in steel products imported into the United States, and compare them with the number of tons of steel products exported.

It is not so easy to trace every ton of steel product produced in an American steel mill and shipped to an American manufacturer, who then processes the steel into a truck or an appliance or a machine and then ships this finished product to a customer abroad.

These indirect exports of steel, according to estimates of the American Iron and Steel Institute, have generally been greater than our direct exports of steel products; and, combined, they have always been greater, except for the last year, than our combined imports of steel.

Another point to be kept in mind is that as far as employment in the steel industry is concerned, the rate of national industrial activity is much more important than the balance of imports and exports. A prosperous year will increase employment of steelworkers far greater than a surge of imports will reduce such employment.

Record Production
It should be remembered that 1965 was not only the year of highest steel production, it was also the year of highest American steel industry production. We achieved this record production with the same number of workers that we had in former years of lower production, but this is because of increased productivity.

The steel expansion, which resumed early this year, brought with it recovery of some 60,000 of the 65,000 of the steel jobs which had been lost after the contract settlement.

Unfortunately, the best steel year in history did not bring with it the best iron ore year. The foreign investments of the American steel industry, encouraged by our tax laws, have been too extensive for that.

New Iron Ore Mines
Nevertheless, there is also a ray of hope here, for the American steel companies have made notable progress in developing iron ore in several widely separated areas in the United States. They have opened new mines in Missouri and Wyoming, and developed facilities in Minnesota; and they are increasing their use of pellets wherever possible. But older domestic mines are still being closed down in favor of foreign sources.

Let me parenthetically say here that we do not oppose our steel industry's having gone abroad for more iron ore.

In order to permit full utilization of our domestic steel industry we must rely on foreign ore to supplement domestic supplies, and we, therefore, oppose any tariff or quota on iron ore. All we ask for is a just portion between foreign and domestic ores.

I may further add that Canada is our chief supplier and that the Canadian iron ore mines are the members of the United Steelworkers of America, and we are glad to have this tie with them.

Readjustment Allowances
There is another aspect of steel and iron ore imports that should be a subject of proposed investigation. The figures show enormous imports, both of steel products and iron ore.

The Trade Expansion Act of 1963 provides for readjustment allowances for workers who lose their jobs as a result of imports. Figures have been cited claiming that tens of thousands of steel workers and iron ore miners have lost their jobs to imports.

Yet not a single steelworker or iron ore miner has received a

Registration for the second session of the summer program conducted by the YMCA started this week and will continue next week. Members may register by phone or in person.

The theme of "Mind, Body and Soul" has been stressed in scheduling activities for elementary and junior high school youngsters. Mrs. Bonnie Fuller, junior high director, said.

Gym activities include classes in wrestling, trampoline, tumbling, and physical fitness for boys, and trampoline, tumbling and games for the girls.

Swim classes for ages six through 14 include seven ability levels. Story hours for children four and five years old are held from 9 to 10 a.m. Mondays and Thursdays, and for six, seven and eight year olds from 10 to 11 a.m. Mondays and Thursdays. Records will be used, and a film is planned.

Drama classes have been extended with students entering the second part of the course. Beginners are welcome. A presentation is being scheduled for August.

Tuesday art classes meet each week for grade school children. Junior high art students meet at 3 p.m. Fridays. Materials are furnished by the YMCA. Mrs. Mary Krause assists Mrs. Bonnie Fuller with the junior high art and crafts class.

Recreation swims for members only are held from 2 to 3 p.m. Wednesdays, and for members and non-members, from noon to 1 p.m. Saturdays. Lobby games, ping pong, pool, games and comics are continued activities open to members and non-members throughout the week. Lobby hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and 9 a.m. to noon on Saturdays.

The cost is $3.50 for the second session for one activity or $4.50 for two or more activities. Yearly memberships are $6.50 for one activity and $11 for two or more. Full information may be obtained by phoning the YMCA youth department. Classes will begin July 25 and end Aug. 27. She will be a senior this fall.

Named to Dean's List
Mrs. Kathleen A. Barton of East Alton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dogleff, 821 Madison avenue, was named to the Dean's list during her spring semester this year at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus. She will be a senior this fall.

More Students At SIU Campuses This Summer

Southern Illinois University today announced a summer quarter enrollment of 12,672 students, an increase of 13.4% over a year ago.

Registrar Robert A. McGrath said the total includes 8478 Carbondale campus students and 4194 on the new Southwest campus. The Carbondale figure is an increase of 1118 over last year, the new campus figure is up by 381.

Class by class, the greatest increase is in the number of freshmen, a jump of 32.4% over last year. Juniors increased by 17.9% and graduate students by 13.7%. McGrath said the figures "clearly reflect" a change in SIU admissions policies earlier this year making it more difficult to enter the University in the fall term and establishing summer quarter as the only time many students may be admitted.

Unusual Lift-Type Draw Bridge an Attraction at Hardin, Illinois

Illinois is a state of unique and historic bridges, some of them dating back to Civil War days and before. Of the many covered bridges once spanning streams within state borders, only nine are still being maintained, or have been restored by historical groups.

But at the river town of Hardin, Illinois, gateway and county seat of Illinois' most unusual county (without a railroad), and famous for its apples—there is another type of bridge over the Illinois River, a rarity in this part of the state. The bridge, one might say, was built because of Calhoun's huge annual apple crop. There were no feasible ways to get the apples to market, Calhoun county, as the tourist knows, is almost completely surrounded by water—a long fringe of limestone ridgeland sandwiched in between the Mississippi and Illinois rivers. Until the bridge was built at Hardin, only way to get out the apple crop was via ferry.

Lift-Type bridge. Not only is this bridge at Hardin needed, it is unique, for it is a lift-bridge, commonly called a draw-bridge. This type of bridge was a necessity here, due to the river traffic on the Illinois. Maintained by the state highway department, the bridge is a tourist attraction in Illinois Expedition Land.

If you, or the family, haven't traveled over a lift-bridge, this one on Highway 16 leading into the county from Jerseyville, to the east, is your chance to enjoy a novel experience. It's a huge bridge, very high, and a lot of mechanics is employed to lift the one activated span, so boats can move through.

Before the bridge lifts, of course, there is a warning signal, stopping traffic. Then the huge span slides upward, high enough to let the boat pass. Two types of propulsion are employed, gas and electricity. If for any reason there would be a power failure, there is a standby gas engine town Hardin. There, to the influence of the river is noted, originally an old Indian burial ground. West of the bridge is a cliff are suggestive of some isolated area in the far West.

UNIQUE DRAW BRIDGE, one of few of its type still in use throughout the nation, is located across the Illinois River at Hardin. The gigantic bridge is lifted with electrical power, but a standby gasoline engine is always on the ready should the power fail.

changes, to test the mechanism.

Wigwam Motif HS

The bridge opens into down with an Indian wigwam motif, to year you visit Calhoun county, the scenery is beautiful; some of the shut-in coves and mountain high in your praise of this area of Illinois Expedition Land.

The river is a way of life here. Rather than Illinois. Go in, via the lift-bridge, travel south the length of the county, visit its many historic sites, and you'll be high in your praise of this area of Illinois Expedition Land.

Farm Column

By TRUMAN W. MAY
Madison County Farm Advisor

Dates of the annual county 4-H club show are July 25-26 at the Madison County Fair at Highland. Dairy cattle, one of the main divisions of the show, will be judged the morning of Monday, July 25. Garden displays, poultry, rabbits and other projects will also be judged Monday. The other livestock, including beef cattle, hogs and horses will be judged the morning of July 26. Special events will be a 4-H made by the Monon variety, but here show the afternoon of July 26 and a 4-H tractor driving contest the afternoon of Wednesday, July 27.

Wheat Test Plot Yields
In the two wheat variety test plots harvested this week the soft varieties yielded the hard wheat as usual, although the margin was somewhat less than in most previous years. The soft wheats had an average advantage of about 3 bushels per acre. In the test plot grown by Bergmann-Taylor Seeds, St. Jacob, the six soft varieties averaged 67.3 bushels, while the six hard wheats averaged 65.2 bu. Highest soft varieties were Knox (62), at 81.2 bu., Lewis 75 and Riley 72.9 bu. The latter two are new varieties, which may not be available for seed in very large amounts for some time. Leading hard wheats in this test were Scout 79.1 bu., Triumph 68.6 and Gage 64.5 bu. Scout is a new variety.

At the plot grown by Marvin Suttle in Leaf township, the six soft wheats averaged 72.6 bu., while the five hard varieties made 69.2 bu. All these yields of the comparatively small plots were increased to an acre basis and naturally run somewhat higher than the rest of the field, although the field averages were also high. Highest soft wheats in the Suttle plot were Riley 76, Knox (62) 75.4, Lewis 72.9 bu. and Monon 72.2. Leading hard varieties were Scout 77.2, Gage 70.8 and Pioneer 69.1 bu.

Most of the wheat grown in the county is now the Monon variety, which has yielded consistently high since it was introduced several years ago. The new Riley that haven't been properly and Lewis varieties, both soft wheats, look very promising. Of spot. They excite easily. They are hard wheat. Scout is certain to attract attention because of its performance in our tests this year, but more than one year's experience will be required before it can be definitely recommended. Most farmers prefer to grow soft wheat and the Monon is expected to continue to be the most popular variety for the next several years.

More reports of unusually high yields are being received. Homer Henke or Bethalto had a 69.5 bu. per acre average on 42 acres. One of his fields, 14 acres, averaged 71.5 bu. and a four-acre field yielded 72.7 bu. an acre. All his wheat was the Other livestock, including beef cattle, hogs and horses will be judged the morning of July 26. Special events will be a 4-H made by the Monon variety, but here show the afternoon of July 26 and a 4-H tractor driving contest the afternoon of Wednesday, July 27.

May 12 still made 60 bu. Highest yield reported so far for the 76 bu. yield in 1964 was of Monon grown by Bill Keller of Collinsville township. Other high yields reported include Charles O'Neill, Home township, 18.3 acres at 69.5 bu. Ed Mrisin, Olive township, 5 acres at 70 bu. and Jack Frank, Alhambra, 64 bu. on 15 acres. All these were of the Monon variety.

It appears now that the average county yield may be the new record. Highest county average is 69 bu. per acre in 1964. The 1965 average was 58 bu.

4-H Exhibits July 25-26
Madison county 4-H club members are getting their annual ready to exhibit in the annual county 4-H show at Highland July 25 and 26.

Are some boys and girls better showmen than others because of their age or past show ring experience? Or do they possess some mystic power that enables them to bring out the best in their animal when he comes under the critical eye of a judge?

"I've often suspected that some boys and girls meet their calves for the first time at the show ring gate," says University of Illinois extension beef specialist Terry Greathouse. "And I'm tempted to remind them that the world to break a calf to lead."

The veteran judge says calves that haven't been properly and Lewis varieties, both soft wheats, look very promising. Of spot. They excite easily. They are hard wheat. Scout is certain to attract attention because of its performance in our tests this animal's best qualities without resorting to unethical practices in an attempt to deceive the judge.

the calf also be neat. Most successful showmen start bathing their calves at least twice a month as soon as the weather warms up in the spring. Frequent bathing makes the calf more gentle and gives an appearance of more bloom.

Another grooming practice that pays off is keeping the animal's feet properly trimmed. It's much better to trim the feet a little periodically than to trim them severely at one time.

"All too often I've seen calves that have had their feet trimmed for the first time the day before the show ring. They limp around the show ring in obvious pain. They seldom win," says Greathouse. He paraphrases the cliché that behind every successful man you will find a woman by saying that behind every successful showman you will find a well-planned, systematic program.

A good showman works hard to take maximum advantage of his

City Interpretation

Shrubbery is a Fence—If It Blocks Motorists' View

When is shrubbery a fence? When it is near an intersection and obscures the view of motorists—creating a traffic hazard.

That was an interpretation of the city fence control law presented to the Granite City council Monday night by City Atty. Richard Allen, who said the city could require shrubbery to be trimmed to 4½ feet even if on private property.

Allen pointed out that even though the city code specifies "constructed fences," the city could classify shrubbery as a fence if it blocks a motorist's view at an intersection and is a threat to public safety.

Referred to Commission

The interpretation was referred to the Citizens Traffic Study Commission. Several weeks ago, aldermen noted the hazards created by tall shrubbery on private property and asked the city attorney to determine if the city could exercise controls.

It was suggested the fence law

The Country Church

John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University

Twenty years ago many persons were ready to accept as a fact the statement that the days of the country church were numbered and that it was on its way out. This was almost persuaded, regrettably so.

Then, three weeks ago, came two days in the very rural countryside that did much to change our thinking. One of the days was spent in Pulaski county, the other in Franklin, but more of the Franklin county day later, when more has been learned about what was seen.

Today's offering will have to do with Pulaski county and the Shiloh Baptist Church.

Organized in 1817

In 1813 Aaron Atherton came to settle in the wooded hills west of Villa Ridge. Within a few years, three to be exact, nine additional families related to the Athertons came to settle nearby. Ten members of this group, feeling the need of a church organization met in 1817 to form one and named it Shiloh Baptist Church.

There were few churches of that faith in southern Illinois in 1817, not enough to justify the formation of the usual church association. Shiloh accordingly became a charter member of the Cape Girardeau Association in Missouri, until 1831 when it withdrew to become a charter member of the Clear Creek Association in Illinois. One hundred thirty-five years later it still is a member.

During the two years following the formation of the church, services were held in the homes of members. The first church house, one of hewed logs, was built in 1820 west across the sunken highway from the site of the present church on land given by Mr. Atherton. Another church built in 1852 replaced the first one of logs. This second church burned in 1868 and was replaced the next year by the present building.

97-Year-Old Building

The present building, now rounding out its 97th year is well preserved and well cared for. It is certainly does not look its age. Its oak panes, enough to seat some 80 persons, would grace any church. There is a modest stained glass window behind the pulpit and some well chosen wall pictures.

There is a full basement beneath the church with a well equipped kitchen-dining room community room. A bulletin board announces the total Sunday School enrollment as 68. Attendance at each of two recent Sunday meetings was 61. They make no boast of a great enrollment but are much pleased when the visitor notes the high percentage of attendance. The church is well lighted, appropriately carpeted and has automatic gas heat.

They have a nice piano, competently played, their singing is good, with a tendency toward the old proven and cherished songs. Their house is clean, orderly, and well kept. The hitching racks to which horses were tethered are gone. Saplings to which other horses were tied a hundred years ago are grown to full sized trees. Grave markers in the little cemetery shows no evidence of vandalism or neglect. Moreover, there is no church debt.

Sunken, Winding Roadway

The drive along an old sunken and winding roadway from Illinois Highway 51 at the north side of Villa Ridge to the church creates a mood that makes for enjoyment of the visit. It is not an abandoned road but one that has aged gracefully. One driving along it can feel that it is a roadway leading into yesterday and it does.

Though it always has been a small church as numbers go, it has been progressive and influential, having taken an active part in the formation of eight other churches of the faith.

It was actively engaged in the establishment of Sunday Schools while they still lacked approval of many churches. From the establishment of Sunday Schools that advocated and promoted missionary work.

Clear Creek Association

The Clear Creek Association that met here in August 1865, one hundred one years ago, recorded its thankfulness for peace, extended a welcome to those who had fought to preserve our nation, invoked God's blessing on those widowed and orphaned by the conflict and His guidance in tasks lying ahead. As one studies the records of this little church, its steady faith and accomplishments for 150 years, his faith in the country church is strengthened. The Rev. Lockhard, who preached his first sermon here in 1910, has been its full time pastor since the first Sunday in June 1949. Though it is among the very oldest churches of its faith in Illinois it looks in sublime faith to the future.

The stranger, visiting with them, somehow comes to take that, hopeful look.

Why not try one?

Then there doubtlessly are other "Shiloh Baptist Churches" of various faiths equally interesting.

GC Crime Rate Increases During June, Chief Reports

While the number of crimes occurring in Granite City increased by 34 in June over May, complaint calls dropped from May's total of 877 to 717 last month, according to a monthly police activities report submitted to the city council Monday night.

The report by Chief Willard showed investigations in aggravated assault cases, burglaries and thefts under $50, but a decline in the number of auto thefts. The June report compared to the May totals followed, with the June figure listed first: Rape, one and one; robbery, none and one; aggravated assault, three and one; burglaries, 23 and 15; larceny over $50, 16 and 16; larceny under $50, 81 and 52; auto thefts, six and 10.

During June, police cleared 14 of the 130 offenses along with 59 other cases; while in May, 13 of 86 offenses were cleared. The 130 offenses last month was six greater than in June 1965, when 124 offenses were cleared. The detective bureau conducted 188 investigations last month, interviewing 328 persons.

Reporting on traffic accidents, the chief noted there were 101 in June, 45 less than in May and nine less than in June 1965.

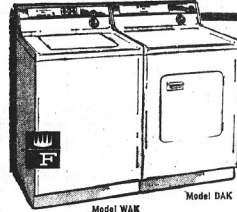

In the 101 crashes, 31 persons were hurt, compared to 61 in May; and there were 322 arrests with 349 charges, compared to 286 arrests and 327 charges in May. The arrests were up 47 over June 1965 and the number of charges was up 59.

Heat Wave Slows Work On New SIU Buildings

Work on at least one SIU construction project has been geared down as a result of a prolonged mid-July heat wave at Carbondale last week. Associate architect William Volk said contractors have been letting workmen off early at the Brush Towers residence halls site. The main work force quit at 11 a.m. Wednesday when temperature on the exposed concrete deck hit a reported 122 degrees. The shift normally runs to 3:30 p.m.

Elsewhere on the campus construction front, the Federal Housing Administration has promised a final go-ahead within 90 days on a $4 million housing project for SIU student and staff families with moderate incomes. The 304-unit apartment development will go up on a 40-acre site near the Carbondale city reservoir.

Work Stoppage Slows New Technology Bldg.

Southern Illinois University's new $4.5 million school of technology building at Carbondale may be opened for classes this September without any classrooms.

A work stoppage at a metal products plant in Virginia has halted production of partitions for the building's interior. Campus architect Willard Hart said the slip-in panels were designed to provide most of the major cross-partitioning in the building. Hart said the four-story classroom portion of the Technology unit is expected to be ready for fall occupancy, but that "classes may be lots of groups in great big rooms."

Two other segments of the interconnected building group, to house research and laboratory areas, are not expected to be entirely completed by September, Hart said.

In the Red

The cost of a vacation means people sweat even if they do find a cool place to spend it.

Named to Dean's List

Gale Alford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Alford, 2152 Orville avenue, was named to the dean's list during the spring semester this year at Illinois State University with 5 A's and 2 B's. She will be a sophomore this fall, and is a major in special education.

Checkerboard Squares Expand to Far East

The Checkerboard Squares of Granite City, nationally known exhibition square dance group, has become international through the efforts of Gary Greene, former featured caller here and now serving in the Air Force in a rapidly growing field.

Greene has organized and taught three squares, 24 children, of military dependents on the island of Okinawa as the Far East division of the Checkerboard Squares.

They recently completed an exhibition tour of the Ryukyu Islands, climaxed by participation in the Port Buckner special science in education degree in library science, with B.S., B.A. or B.S. in education degrees also. Members of the Far East division, like its parent group, range in age from eight to 19 years. The groups plan to coordinate with the efforts of exhibition routines to culminate in a consolidated international exhibition group at the 16th national square dance convention next June in Philadelphia.

Students in SWEAT Sweat It Out at SIU

In case anyone should like to award a prize for the Most Appropriately Named Group, the Summer Work Experience and Training Telling for the second week in one of the fiercest heat waves on record, the trainees are literally sweating through their summer vacations.

They're serving as paid counselors at SIU's 12th annual camp program for handicapped children at the university's Little Grassy lake facilities. Their sponsor, by way of a $9900 grant to the school, is the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. HEW wants to see more teenagers and college-age youths versed in the skills of working with mentally retarded children, hoping that they'll take it up as a career in the Far East.

ISU to Offer Five New Major Fields in Fall

Approval by the Illinois board of higher education has cleared the way for Illinois State University this fall to offer five new major fields of study. Included are a bachelor of science in education degree in library science, with B.S., B.A. or B.S. in education degrees also to be offered in history, political science, sociology, anthropology and economics. The new majors expand its curricular offerings beyond teacher education into liberal arts and related fields.

State Capital Home notes

Highway Beautification
Illinois is one of the first states in the nation to originate its portion of federal funds allocated to the various states for highway beautification purposes. Gov. Otto Kerns has announced.

He said that a report from Public Works Director Francis S. Lorenz shows that Illinois has obligated $2,996,225 of a total of $3,000,000 in federal funds allocated to the state for the beautification program.

The major portion of the total allotment in Illinois will be used to construct rest stops on primary highways throughout the state. Funds totaling $1,814,240 have been obligated for this. Another $633,445 has been obligated for the acquisition of scenic easements along both interstate and primary routes. Landscaping along primary routes will require $18,570.

May 'Threats the Book'
The month of May 1966 will go down in the records as one in which Mother Nature "threw the book" at Illinois gardeners, nurserymen and all persons interested in the welfare of flowers, shrubs, trees and evergreens.

First came the excessive rains, discouraging work in fields and encouraging weeds. It was followed by a severe frost in June. Adding insult to injury was a freak storm on the 11th that deposited as much as three inches of snow in some parts of Illinois. Trees that were considerably stressed out seemed to resist in June.

The gardeners, the horticulturists, the nurserymen of Illinois are a stubborn and persistent lot. Reports Glenn L. Pierce, plant inspector with the Division of Plant Industry, Illinois Department of Agriculture. They rise up again and again, with vigor and optimism and go forth to fight the elements, weeds and insects with the battle-cry, "Maybe next year it will be better."

Consider buying upholstered furniture "in the muslin." This furniture is fully made except for the upholstery fabric covering. Slip-cover the furniture during the years when children are around your house. Then buy storage pieces and other furniture. When choosing chests or dressers, remember that many shallow drawers provide more convenient storage than a few deep drawers. For dining rooms, matched sets are often monotonous. If possible, plan to use dining room chairs in the living room when you need to expand your seating space.

Sometimes good second-hand furniture is preferable to poorly built new furniture. Judge Cantaloupe Ripeness By Their Looks
The most reliable way to select a vine-ripened melon, cantaloupe is by the way it looks and smells. A Lok at the stem end. It should be slightly indented and smooth. This feature means that when the melon was mature and ready for harvest, it separated cleanly from the vine leaving the "cantaloupe" on the stem end. The netting on a vine-ripened melon should be well raised and stand out in bold relief all over the surface of the melon. The background between the corky gray netting should be a uniform light yellow. A mature cantaloupe has a distinct aroma at the blossom end.

Vets to be Honored At State Fair Aug. 14

In recognition of their contributions to America's defense Sunday, Aug. 14, has been designated as Veterans' Day at the 1966 Illinois State Fair in Springfield.

Highlighting the day's events will be competition for drum and bugle corps, drill teams, color guards and bands—all manned by members of 13 Illinois veteran organizations. They will be competing for $15,000 in prize money to be divided up among the class winners.

Veterans' Day activities have traditionally attracted the exposition's largest single-day attendance. State Fair officials estimate that as many as 130,000 may flow through the fairground gates for the ceremonies this year.

Entry applications for Veterans' Day events should be sent to the Secretary, P. O. Box 910, Bloomington, Aug. 5 is the deadline for applications for those wishing to enter additional units.

$23,901 Sales Tax for GC

More Killed by Insect Stings Than Snake Bites

Honeybees, wasps, hornets and yellow jackets can be as deadly as poisonous snakes. In fact, they kill more Americans each year than snake bites.

Fortunately, not everyone is susceptible to such a deadly reaction—only those who are allergic to insect venom.

How does one know if he's allergic? He'll probably get warning signs the first time he's stung. He may become nauseous, break out with hives, suffer an asthmatic attack, or even lapse into shock—besides experiencing the normal reaction of pain, swelling and redness at the site of the sting.

If you have a known allergy to stinging insects, take steps to protect yourself.

First of all, make sure you carry a special bee sting kit. The kit contains drugs to counteract severe reactions in the event of a sting. In addition, there are hypodermic syringes which may prevent severe reactions from recurring.

If you should be stung by a honeybee in particular, some of the harmful effects can be prevented if the stinger is removed instantly. This can be done with one swift scrape of the finger nail. But remember—never pick up the stinger between the thumb and forefinger; you'll only squeeze it more venom.

Painful in Any Case

Whether you're allergic or not, the pain caused by stinging insects is no joke. To relieve pain from the sting of a honeybee, hornet or yellow jacket, apply household ammonia, baking soda or even ice water. Vinegar is particularly soothing for wasp stings. Whatever you do, don't follow the old wives' tale about mud packs. It could result in serious infection.

To avoid being stung:

Wear light colored clothing such as whites, tans or greens. Flowery prints, blacks and bright colors antagonize bees and invite attack.

Avoid wearing sweet-smelling cosmetics such as perfume, hair sprays, hair tonics and suntan lotion—all of which attract stinging insects.

Keep garbage areas clean and spray them with insecticides regularly to keep insects away. Check your yard for possible hives. Should you discover one, don't try to remove it yourself. Leave the job for professional exterminators, beekeepers or even the fire department.

Where are most hives found?

WASPS' open comb nests may be found under eaves, in carports, behind shutters—in almost any protected place.

HORNETS' gray pyroform or football-shaped hives hang on tree branches.

YELLOW JACKETS live in the ground and emerge through small holes, especially near dead logs.

HONEYBEES nestle in hollows of trees or on twigs.

Vets Warned About Special Courses

Joseph D. Wetton, local service officer for the Illinois Veterans' Commission, said today that veterans having military service after Jan. 31, 1955, should not sign contracts or agreements to enroll in correspondence or similar courses in anticipation of eligibility for educational benefits under the post-Korean GI Bill.

Veterans entering into such agreements might become obligated under a contract to pay a school which had not been approved by the Veterans' Administration. Therefore, the end result would be that the veteran would not receive his monthly allowance.

Further information on such regulations may be obtained from Wetton at the city hall in Granite City. His office is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Four Fire Hydrants Installed in GC

Installation of four fire hydrants requested by the Granite City council has been accomplished, according to a report submitted to the aldermen Monday night by East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co.

The fire plugs are at 20th street and Madison avenue, Clark avenue and Nameoki road, along Nameoki road north of Jill avenue and at Victory drive and Marshall avenue.

BANJOIST JOE SCHIRMER

'Music under Stars' July 28

Banjoist Joe Schirmer To Play at Wilson Park

Joe Schirmer, a top banjo artist for 35 years, a frequent guest on Arthur Godfrey's show and a top entertainer in spots throughout the United States, will return to this area Thursday, July 28, as featured guest of the fourth and final "Music Under the Stars" concert at the 27th street and Delmar entrance to Wilson Park.

The program, under the direction of Warren G. Simpkins and sponsored by the Granite City Park district, will be entitled "Music for a Summer Evening."

It will include vocal and instrumental solos, dance numbers and will feature Schirmer in a number of typical banjo presentations that has made him an outstanding performer in international entertainment centers. He recently returned from a European performance tour.

Schirmer, who is a popular artist with Quad-Cityans, has made a number of appearances in this area and also at the St. Louis Municipal Opera. He is a native of St. Louis and has been playing professionally since he was 14.

Surety Bonds No Longer Required for Taverns

An ordinance eliminating the city code requirement for tavern operators to post a $2000 surety bond with annual city liquor license applications was approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

Mayor Partney explained that under state law, such bonds no longer are required.

Chief to Convention

Authorization was given Monday night by Granite City council members for Police Chief Raymond Willard to attend the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police conference in Springfield July 24-26 with a $100 expense allowance.
